MAIL TRAIN IS HELD UP BY TWO MASKED BANDITS

Half Hundred Deputy Sheriffs Chase Them in Vain.

Fireman Shows Fight and Is Beaten Unconscious.

TAKE REGISTERED POUCHES

Enter Mail Car Thru Threat to Blow It Up.

Believe Daring Pair Escaped by Auto Into Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 28.—At the outskirts of Detroit, masked bandits last night held up and robbed Michigan Central passenger train No. 14, Chicago to New York express, and escaped with the contents of two registered mail pouches. Half a hundred deputy sheriffs who patrolled the vicinity of the holdup for hours after the robbery, were still without any clue early today as to the whereabouts of the bandits. Passengers were not valued.

Value of the loot was still undetermined early today. Only two men participated in the holdup. They are thought to have boarded the train at Ypsilanti.

Engineer Acts at Point of Gun. Descending into the engine from the coal tender, where they had been hidden, the bandits covered Engineer Harry Palmer with a gun and forced a sudden stop at a point a mile and a half east of Dearborn, a Detroit suburb. They disposed of the fireman, John Doherty of Jackson, who showed signs of fight by beating him almost into insensibility with a revolver butt.

Working with lightning speed, one of the bandits snatched the mail car from the rest of the train and then forced the engineer to pull the detached section down the track for a distance of about 200 yards. They obtained entrance to the mail car by threatening to blow it to bits and by the same tactics obtained the registered mail pouches from the clerks. Leaving the engineer and clerks in the mail car, the bandits returned to the engine and sped away in the direction of Detroit.

Later they abandoned the engine and it was found with fuses dumped at a point a mile distant from the mail car. They are believed to have escaped into Detroit by auto. Passengers were in complete ignorance of events ahead. It was not until about fifteen minutes later that Doherty, the fireman, blood soaked and suffering from serious wounds, pulled himself into one of the Pullman cars and gave the occupants information of what had happened. Panic broke among women passengers but they were soon reassured. Conductor Boucard, in charge of the train, was in one of the Pullman cars at the time of the holdup. He commanded the time of a passing automobile and rushed to a telephone to notify Michigan Central headquarters in Detroit.

DRYS HAIL BRYAN

Grape Juice Champion May Be Next Candidate.

Landreth Decries Breweries as Worse Than Saloons.

Urbana, Utah, Sept. 28.—Breweries and Bryan, condemnation for one and commendation for the other were subjects discussed to Utah folks today by Dr. Ira Landreth, Prohibition vice presidential candidate, as the dry speaker entered the state for a one-day campaign. Utah is "wet."

It is not the saloon, nor the distiller but the brewery that is the greatest evil of all the liquor traffic agencies," Dr. Landreth said. "It owns the fixtures of the saloon and all too often it owns the mayor and legislature also."

Dr. Landreth's remarks were occasioned in part by what he learned in a two days' campaign in Colorado, completed yesterday, where the breweries are seeking to weaken the dry law by having been declared a non-intoxicant.

"I welcome William Jennings Bryan to our ranks as a new convert," Dr. Landreth continued. "He has declared that the one great issue is liquor. He and others are going in for prohibition to be in at the death of liquor. They can point to their aid in the great victory." Dr. Landreth said he would not be at all surprised if Bryan should run again for president on the "dry" ticket.

"I'll vote for him if he does," he said.

MOB KILLS 2 NEGROES

Arrested in Connection With Murder in Tennessee Village.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 28.—Two negroes arrested in connection with the murder of Bud Burns at Gardonsburg, Saturday night, were taken from the Hohenwald jail by a mob early today and shot to death.

NECK BROKEN SINCE LAST FALL; BOY DIDN'T KNOW IT

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 28.—Joe Maston, all round athlete of the University of Pittsburg, has had his neck broken since last fall but he did not know it until today, when after vainly trying to play with the football team, he consulted a physician. An X-ray photograph disclosed that the only reason Maston is not dead is because the fracture is between the second and third vertebrae and the spinal column is not affected.

BANKS TOO EASY

Protective Department Blames Them for Their Losses.

Using Deposits on Uncollected Checks One Cause.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 28.—Crimes committed against banks represented in the American Bankers' association during the past year have shown no marked increase, according to the annual report of the protective department here today, and it was further shown that a large proportion of the burglaries and similar crimes proved unsuccessful.

For the period from August 1, 1915, to September 1, this year, there was a total of 428 arrests and 207 convictions. The report notes that the losses sustained by members in connection with burglaries amounted only to $7,754, while the loss sustained by non-members amounted to more than $50,000. Thru thirty-five holdups, however, there was a loss to members of $65,821, and thru nine sneak thefts a loss of $26,500.

Swindlers Use Counter Checks. The department now has 4,720 photographs of criminals, comprising burglars, holdup men, sneak thieves, forgers, and bogus check operators, with a complete record of each.

A large number of the crimes attempted against banks are due to carelessness on the part of the banks in permitting customers to use funds represented in uncollected checks, according to the report, and it was recommended that this practice be discontinued. Trouble is also caused by the practice of leaving blank checks on the counters, and it was urged that this practice be modified by printing across the face of such checks the words "counter check."

Lead in Bank Burglaries. Oklahoma and Illinois are the banner bank burglary states in the United States.

The annual report of L. W. Gammon, of New York, manager of the protective department, shows that eleven such burglaries or attempts occurred in Oklahoma and ten in Illinois during the thirteen months ending August 31, 1915. In Oklahoma, the losses for the same period were given as sixty-nine. The states of Missouri and Kansas reported five each and in the tabulation follow Oklahoma and Illinois.

The report showed that from these a total of $57,936.32 was obtained by the burglars but further losses, characterized as holdups and sneak thefts, brought the total loss to bankers for the period at $230,767.26. But such losses are shown to have retaliated upon the robbers by sending thirty-seven of them to prison as a result of these crimes.

The report revealed that banks in the past have lost $2,457,239.92 to criminals in the period covered by the life insurance department. No estimate was made as to whether bank robbery is on the increase or decrease.

OUT FOR SCALPS

Reform Warden of Sing Sing Bares Political Plot.

Indictments for Conspiracy Against Eight Are Sought.

Salem, N. Y., Sept. 28.—The attempt of his enemies to blacken his character and oust him as "reform warden" of Sing Sing penitentiary having failed, Thomas Mott Osborne is planning to bring them to book by the high department of justice, which are being considered by the Washington county grand jury, which reconvened here today.

It is whispered that eight men, one of them a former state official, will be indicted, charged with political conspiracy against Osborne. Convicts and ex-convicts, some of whom testified against Osborne when he was indicted for alleged prison mismanagement, in Westchester county, will testify in his favor here today, it is said, telling how they were threatened with punishment if they didn't testify against him before the other jury.

The high department of justice, it is said, because his efficient administration of Sing Sing affairs cut out a lot of graft.

STUDY NEWS TO KEEP UP TO DATE ON GEOGRAPHY

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 28.—Daily newspapers are to be used in teaching European geography in Oklahoma City schools this year, according to Superintendent Whitford, who has instructed principals of all ward schools to utilize them in this manner whenever possible.

"The war has changed the boundary lines of European countries until they no longer conform to those in the books," Superintendent Whitford advised. "Read the newspapers. Keep up with current events and utilize them in classes whenever you can."

HUSBAND WILL FORGIVE; WOMAN SAYS INNOCENT

Blames Graveur, Long Time Friend, for Deed.

Find Identity of Only Survivor of Triple Shooting.

DENIES IMPROPER RELATIONS

Confused With Woman Who Did Shooting, She Says.

Denies Traveling With Graveur; Will Recover.

Philadelphia, Sept. 28.—Hurrying to the bedside of his wife, the one survivor in the triple shooting in a hotel here early yesterday, J. C. Leduc, of Chicago, today said that he had every confidence in her loyalty to him and that he would stick to her thru all her troubles.

Mrs. Leduc is in Jefferson hospital. She was improved today and physicians said she will recover unless complications set in. She was shot by Mrs. Harry Belzer, of New York, who found her and J. C. Graveur, also of New York, in a hotel room. Mrs. Belzer killed Graveur, who had discarded her after a friendship of two years, and also ended her own life.

There was an affecting meeting when Leduc reached the bedside of his wife, where he remained for some time. Later he was escorted to detective headquarters for an interview with the captain of detectives. Before reaching the hospital Leduc told of his happy married life of fifteen years and his implicit trust in his wife. He repeated many times his belief in her faithfulness to him.

Know Graveur Ten Years. Leduc said he had known Graveur for ten years, and always had regarded him as a square man. He had not seen him for seven or eight years and had never heard his wife speak of him. Mrs. Leduc, he said, left Chicago for New York about two weeks ago to visit the nephew and his wife.

He had letters from Graveur and his wife. Leduc said he did not believe his wife had visited Atlantic City with Graveur, as she had said, but that she had met him accidentally in New York and consented to take an automobile ride to this city.

Leduc asked many questions about the shooting, saying he had only a fragmentary knowledge of the affair gathered from newspapers. He asked how Graveur and his wife had registered at the hotel and when told as man and wife, his face grew grave. "It was the work of Graveur and I am sure Lilla did not know it," he exclaimed.

Always regarded Joe as a square man and I cannot understand his actions."

Believes Wife Innocent. Leduc went on to say that his wife is in a position to make a statement reflecting on her, but he still believed her innocent of any wrong doing. "She is a good woman," he said, "has been studying operatic singing for ten years. Before her marriage she was Lilla Kappes, daughter of Philip Kappes, a well known actor. Her mother now lives and is prominent socially."

At the hospital Leduc told his wife to cheer up, that he would forgive and take her back to Chicago. Leduc told the story of the shooting, saying he was taken up to his husband in the presence of detectives. She said she came to Philadelphia by train and by automobile as reported, to see her nephew and his baby recently born. She denied that she had traveled to various cities with Graveur and suggested that her identity had been confused with that of Mrs. Belzer. The wounded man said Graveur told her he had come to Philadelphia with Mrs. Belzer and then persuaded her to go back to New York. According to Mrs. Leduc, Graveur called her "Lilla" and gave her the address and later he met her. The same evening Mrs. Leduc said she went to a theater, then supper and a dance on the roof garden of the hotel was suggested. Mrs. Leduc said she did not want to be embarrassed with her husband and at Graveur's suggestion she said she left in his room on the floor below.

Went to His Room. Mrs. Leduc further said she intended returning to New York that night and after the dance she went with Graveur to his room for the sole purpose of seeing the husband. She returned, Mrs. Leduc said, Mrs. Belzer, who Graveur thought he had induced to return to New York, jumped from a close and began shooting. Mrs. Mann, sister of Mrs. Leduc, corroborated Mrs. Leduc's story that she came to Philadelphia to visit relatives.

Miss McAndrew, sister of Mrs. Belzer, who came here today to claim the body of Mrs. Belzer had come with Graveur was not true. She also denied that her sister had lived with Graveur.

"She is the sweetest little girl in the world," was the statement in broken tones today of Joseph C. Leduc, proprietor of a fashionable Chicago clothing store and expert golfer, as he sat at the bedside of his wife, finally clearing up the identity of the last principal in Philadelphia's hotel tragedy.

"It's my Lilla," said Leduc, as he told detectives that the woman who was shot with J. C. Graveur at the Hotel Winton by Mrs. Harry Belzer is his wife. He made it clear that he does not regard his wife as guilty of any wrong. He declared the man, whom he had regarded as his friend, must have had Mrs. Leduc under the

STRIKE A FZZLE VILLA TO BORDER

Only Handful Responded to Invading Texas Is Plan of Crippled Bandit Chief.

Larger Unions Standing by Contracts With Employers.

New York, Sept. 28.—The second day of what was to have been a general strike of union workers in New York revealed no change early today. In the situation, marked yesterday by practically complete failure of the men and women to walk out, the night of the bandit leader's movements received tonight at field headquarters.

The following leading adherents are said to be with Villa: Jose Inez Salazar, Martin Lopez, three Murga Brothers and Nicolas Fernandez. Villa himself is said to be unable to walk without a crutch or to put his right foot to the ground. The horses in his band are reported to be in poor condition and his followers are said to be in pairs.

The American expeditionary headquarters decline to vouch for the authenticity of the reports, but it is believed possible Villa might enter the Santa Clara country for the purpose of recruiting and securing a base from which he could attack trains and obtain supplies. This region is his old stomping ground, the outlaw knows the country thoroughly and it would afford him an almost secure hiding place.

SEEK SCHOONER ADRIFF

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 28.—Acting under orders from the navy department, Rear Admiral Fullam has sent a three-day battle with the Brooklyn has a thin lead of a game and a half in the struggle for the flag and Philadelphia must capture all three games with the Brooklyn to return home in the lead.

"We will take two out of the three games at least," said Manager Albert Ralston, while watching his pitchers warm up, "and then all we will have to do is to play out our schedule while Boston and Philadelphia cut each other's throats. We do not fear our series with the Giants."

Some seventeen thousand fans swarmed the stands and urged the home folks on to victory over Alexander and his mates.

TO A KNOCKOUT SAYS WAR CHIEF OF GT. BRITAIN

Peace Move by U. S. Now Would Be Unfriendly Act.

"Germany Sought Finish Fight and She'll Get It."

BRITISH GOOD SPORTSMEN

Didn't Whimper When Beaten; Won't Quit Now.

Kitchener's Successor Says Germany Must Be Crushed.

(The following interview with David Lloyd George, the directing force behind Britain's armies, asserting that the war must go on "to the finish—to a knockout"—the first statement given by him to American newspapers since he succeeded Lord Kitchener as secretary of state for war.)

BY ROY W. HOWARD. (President of the United Press Association.) (Copyright, 1916, by the United Press.) (Copyrighted in Great Britain.)

London, Sept. 28.—There is no end of the war in sight. Any step at this time by the United States, the nation or any other neutral in the direction of peace would be construed by England as an unneutral, pro-German move.

The United Press is able to make these statements on no less authority than that of the British man of the hour, Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George, secretary of state for war.

"Britain has only begun to fight; the British empire has invested thousands of its best lives to purchase future immunity for civilization; this investment is too great to be thrown away," was the Welsh statesman's size-up of the situation.

"It was at this time since the beginning of the war there is evidence throughout England of a popular suspicion toward America, a suspicion that the United States is not doing its feeling appears directly attributable to the notion generally entertained by the man on the streets that President Wilson might be induced, but for the purpose of stopping the European war. A similar suspicion of Spain and the Vatican is also manifest."

British Good Sportsmen. Lloyd George was asked to give in the simplest possible language the British attitude toward the recent peace talk.

"Simple language," he inquired, with a half smile. Then he thought a moment.

"Sporting terms are pretty well understood wherever English is spoken," he replied. "I am quite sure they will be understood in America."

Well, then, the British soldier is a good sportsman. He enlisted in this war in the sporting spirit—the best spirit of the British nation. He went to see fair play to a small nation trampled upon by a bully. He is fighting for fair play in international dealings. He has fought as a good sportsman, for the thousands. He has died like a sportsman. He has never asked anything more than a sporting chance and hasn't always had it. When he could not get it, he didn't quit. He played the game. He didn't squeal and he never asked anyone to squeal for him."

The secretary for war, who looks, acts and talks more like an American business man than any other Englishman in public life now, speaking real United States with scarcely any trace of the usual British intonation of accent, continued:

Took His Punishment Then. "Under the circumstances, the British, now that the fortunes of the game have turned, are not disposed to stop because of the squealing done by the Germans, or for the Germans, by probably well-meaning but misguided sympathizers and allies. For two years the British soldier had a bad time—no one knows so well as he what a bad time it was. He was sadly inferior in equipment. On the average he was inferior in training. He saw the allied cause beaten all about the world, but he didn't quit. He kept on the fight on the ground that it was brutal, nor did he ask to have the rules changed. He kept on his punishment. Even when beaten like a dog, he was a game dog. When forced to take refuge in a trench, when badly used up to carry the fight to the enemy he hung on without whining, fought off every attack, bided his time, endured without winking, worked without flagging."

Lloyd George's eyes snapped as sitting at his desk in his office, he tilted back his chair and studied the ceiling as if seeing there a picture of Tommy's game fight in the early stages of the contest.

"And at this time, under these conditions, what was the winning German doing?" he asked.

Germany Chose Finish Fight. "Was he worrying over the terrible slaughter? He was talking of annexing Belgium and Poland as a result of his victory and what he was making the map of Europe without the slightest regard for the wishes of its people the British people were preparing to pay the price we knew must

VANDERLIP IN CITY

New York Banker Will Be in Topeka This Evening.

With Frank Trumbell of "Katy" He'll Feel West's Pulse.

The financial pulse of the west will be felt in the next few days by capitalists of the east, beginning this afternoon when Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City bank of New York, and Frank Trumbell, chairman of the Katy board of directors and the Chesapeake & Ohio board of directors, will leave Kansas City on a flying trip thru Kansas and other western states. With W. M. Jeffers, general manager of the Union Pacific, they will travel on a special train over the Union Pacific.

Frank A. Vanderlip.

The party will arrive in Topeka tonight at 6:30 o'clock and will remain here until morning. At 7 o'clock tonight they will be entertained by Topeka bankers and financiers at an informal dinner in the Harvey house. Arrangements for the dinner were made today.

Mr. Vanderlip and his party will leave Topeka early tomorrow morning. It has been announced that Mr. Vanderlip considered his trip a vacation, but he expects to feel the pulse of the financial west.

All members of the party have been in Kansas to all week attending the convention of the American bankers' association.

Mr. Vanderlip's financial institution is one of the largest of the largest in the United States. He has a reputation the world over as a safe, sane and sound financier.

Advance notices of Vanderlip's arrival stated that he did not intend his trip to be a speech-making tour. Local bankers, however, forced the hand of the king's reported decision to range his armies alongside those of the allies.

Contradictory dispatches from Athens left the situation greatly clouded today, but it appeared probable that ex-Premier Venizelos, arriving at Crete, where he received an enthusiastic welcome, forced the hand of the king's reported decision to range his armies alongside those of the allies.

The Greek battleship Hydra and the cruiser Psara are known to have joined the fleet in the Mediterranean under control of the revolutionaries, said an Athens dispatch, but rumors that other naval units have followed them are not confirmed. Several more Greek officers arrived at Saloniki yesterday and offered their services to the allies.

Calls Brother, Prince George, Home. London, Sept. 28.—Prince George of Greece, brother of King Constantine, who has been in London for some time representing the views of the Greek court today received a telegram from the king recalling him to Athens.

A fifty million dollar loan has been arranged for the city by the American Loan and Company, which is announced to be a loan which will take the form of five-year, six percent bonds, which will be offered to the public by the banking firm next week. The city of Paris will use the funds provided by the bond issue, to increase hospital facilities, build orphan asylums, and to maintain the unemployed.

TABERNACLE WRECKED

Diagonal, Iowa, Sept. 28.—An hour before a big wooden tabernacle was to have been packed by a Union church society here last night, a tornado struck the building, completely wrecking it and scattering chairs and tables in every direction.

Two homes were struck by lightning, but the flames were extinguished after doing small damage. No one was injured.

WEATHER FORECAST for Kansas: Fair; frost tonight; cooler in the east tonight; Friday, fair and somewhat warmer.

KING OF GREECE DECLARES WAR ON BULGARIANS

Decision to Join Allies Authentically Announced Today.

Greek Army of 300,000 to Mobilize at Once.

VENIZELIS FORCED THE MOVE

Ex-Premier Proclaimed Leader of Crete Revolution.

Cruisers and Army Officers Deserted to Join Allies.

Athens, via London, Sept. 28.—The Associated Press is in a position to positively state that King Constantine decided this morning in favor of an immediate declaration of war on Bulgaria.

Reports that a general mobilization has been ordered are premature. After the session of the council of ministers at the palace this morning Premier Kallergopoulos hastily called a cabinet meeting. The premier declared the government was giving the fullest consideration to the situation and said there might be addressed to Bulgaria a note of protest, but that mobilization would logically follow.

Later in the day it developed that the king had decided on a declaration of war against Bulgaria. The decision has not yet been announced publicly, as numerous details remain to be worked out. They include an ultimatum of expectancy, an ultimatum to Bulgaria demanding instant evacuation of all Greek Macedonia, as well as plans for mobilization under the occupation of Greek territory by the entente forces.

People Welcome War. The king this morning discussed the mobilization problem minutely with General Moschopoulos, chief of staff and General Yanakitsas, former minister of war. He probably will preside personally over a meeting of the crown council at noon tomorrow.

Even the departure of former Premier Venizelos from Athens created nothing like the suppressed excitement evident everywhere this afternoon. The people feel that their long period of expectancy, and the prospect of war with the Bulgarians apparently is welcome.

London, Sept. 28.—Greece's army of 300,000 men will be mobilized immediately to join the armies of the allies, said an unconfirmed Athens dispatch today. King Constantine was expected to sign the mobilization decree within forty-eight hours, Athens reported.

The government will then issue a proclamation to the people, denouncing Bulgaria's occupation of Kavala and other Greek ports, following this with a declaration of war. The Greek legation today had no confirmation of these reports. Diplomatic circles, however, heard a rumor that Alexander Capoulas, Greek foreign minister and anti-ally, had resigned. The king's reported decision to range his armies alongside those of the allies.

Situation Gravely Clouded. Contradictory dispatches from Athens left the situation greatly clouded today, but it appeared probable that ex-Premier Venizelos, arriving at Crete, where he received an enthusiastic welcome, forced the hand of the king's reported decision to range his armies alongside those of the allies.

The Greek battleship Hydra and the cruiser Psara are known to have joined the fleet in the Mediterranean under control of the revolutionaries, said an Athens dispatch, but rumors that other naval units have followed them are not confirmed. A trace of rain fell early this morning at Topeka, and a few showers occurred in the state. The lowest temperature this morning was 47 degrees, following a drop (Continued on Page Two.)

Third U-Boat Lined Nearly Ready.

London, Sept. 28.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph says travelers who have arrived from Bremen report that a third German commercial submarine will be ready to sail within a month. This submarine is to be known as the Kaiser, said to be slightly larger than the Deutschland.
